

Why did members join Team Rubicon?

70% 51% 44%

joined as a means to serve

to continue service to their country

to connect with other veterans

34%

to find purpose

28%

to develop friendships

20%

to cultivate other skills

17%

to pursue a career in emergency management

11%

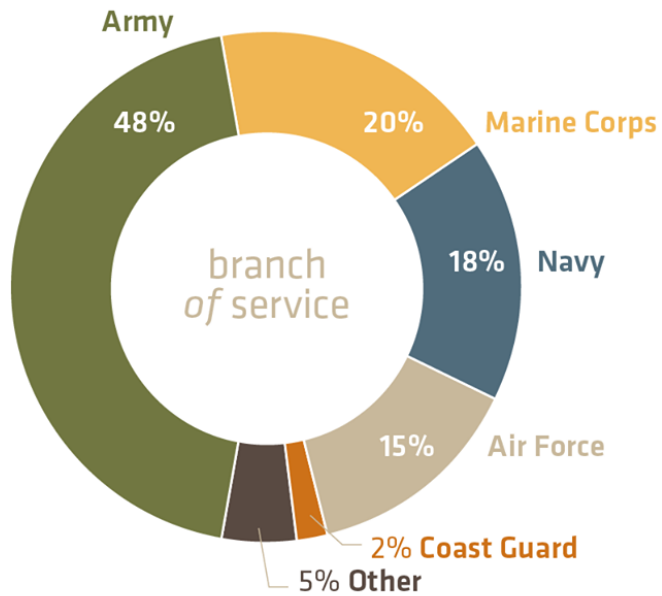

to connect with civilians

"I feel I have changed since I separated from the military, become more of an introvert, but TR helps me get out of my shell and do great things in the community."

47%

have learned and developed new skills since joining TR

25%
civilian

75%
military veteran

32%

have leveraged the skills learned in TR for current or new employment opportunities

87%

would help a fellow TR member in need under most circumstances

95%

are passionate about veteran reintegration

92%

are passionate about disaster response

Team Rubicon surveyed its members in July 2015 to learn how their involvement with TR impacts their lives. 28,000 members received the survey, and 10% responded.